

MEETING JERRY OF THE ZOO. C. Emerson Brown, superintendent of the Philadelphia Zoo, is introducing the "shimmy" baboon to Miss Yvonne Le Clayre.

SUSAN AND HER HAPPY GRANDPARENTS. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskopf and Mrs. Krauskopf in Atlantic City, where they are spending much of their time with Susan Hillman.

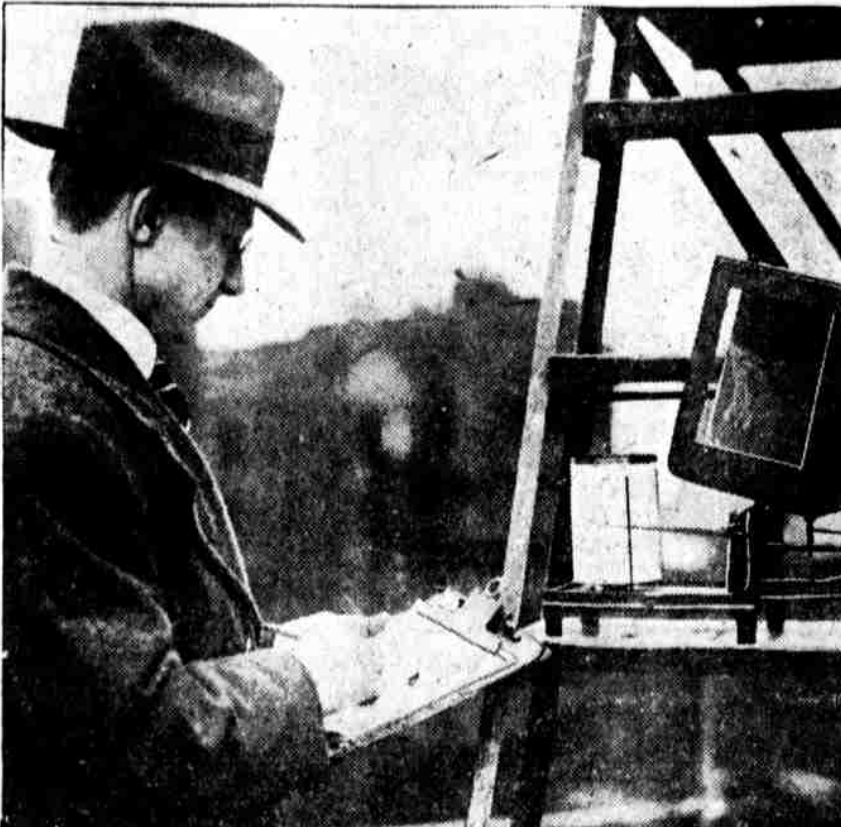

HONOR MEMORY OF STEPHEN DECATUR. The Stephen Decatur Chapter of the Daughters of 1812 held memorial services at the grave in Old St. Peter's Churchyard yesterday afternoon.

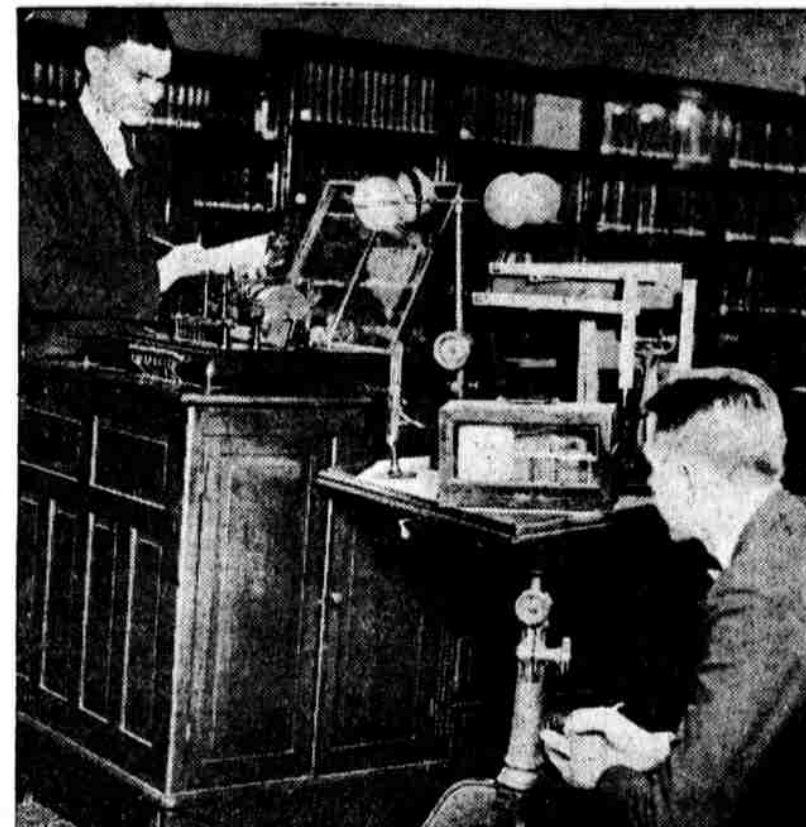

WARNS AMERICAN GIRLS NOT TO MARRY FOREIGNERS. Mrs. Claudia Windsor Tartou, wife of Pierre Tartou, the noted portrait painter, gives the warning as she starts suit for separation in New York courts.

OPPENHEIM, COLLINS & CO. GIRLS AWARD LIMERICK PRIZE. The award of the $100 Limerick prize announced on Pages 1 and 2 today was made by this jury from the Oppenheim, Collins & Co. store, 1207 Chestnut street. Those in the picture, from left to right, are: (Front row) Florence Neufeld, Myrtle Wolf, Anna Munroe, Mae Furlong, Irma Clegg; (back row) Juanita Stewart, Dorothy Hammell, Korah C. Donnelly, Kathryn Mooney, Helen Nusbaum.

BUSY ATTACHES OF THE PHILADELPHIA WEATHER BUREAU. They are under the supervision of George S. Bliss. At the left, George Mindling is reading the thermograph for the hourly temperature. Frank Ahearn (standing) is at the meteorograph, which determines wind velocity and direction. It also registers rainfall and sunshine. At the right, George L. Hughes is at the barograph, which determines air pressure.

GEORGE S. BLISS, of the Philadelphia Weather Bureau, talks on the weatherman's part in the life of the community in an interview on the editorial page.

HE KEEPS ON SMILING. Ludwig Martens, the Soviet representative, does not register worry on his face over the plans for his deportation.

MRS. LOUIS VERNON SLONAKER, daughter of Congressman Clark, of Florida, who was married in Washington last week.

THE MAXAPHONE ONE-MAN ORCHESTRA. This new musical instrument was patented by William Maxwell, of Brooklyn, and is intended to take the place of movie and cafe orchestras. Get ready for it.

STILL BLOWING. W. B. Symonds, glass expert of the Bureau of Chemistry, is reputed to have blown the first electric bulb. He continues to experiment.

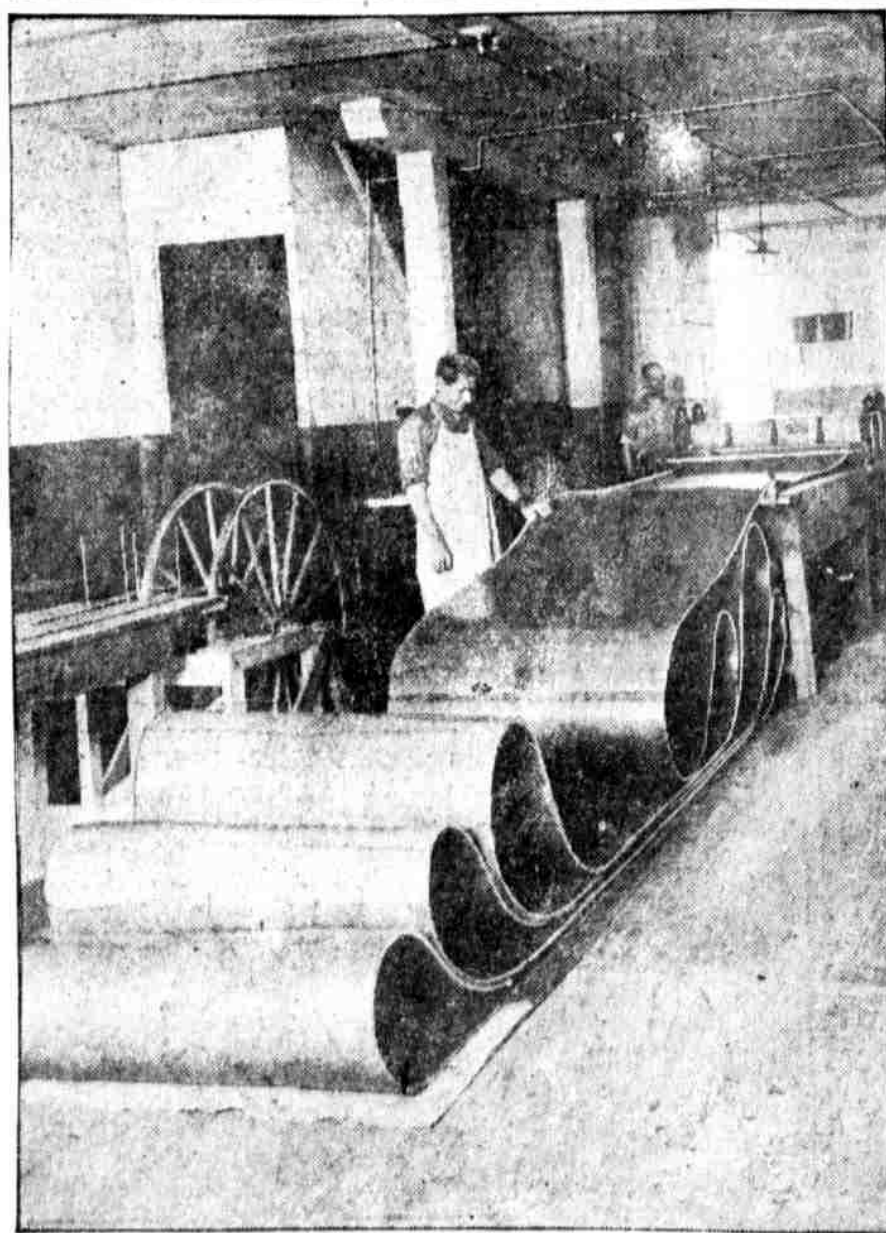

GET YOUR 1921 LICENSE BEFORE MONDAY. Patrolmen are now taking record of all 1920 automobile licenses they find, but beginning Monday the offenders must meet the "judge."

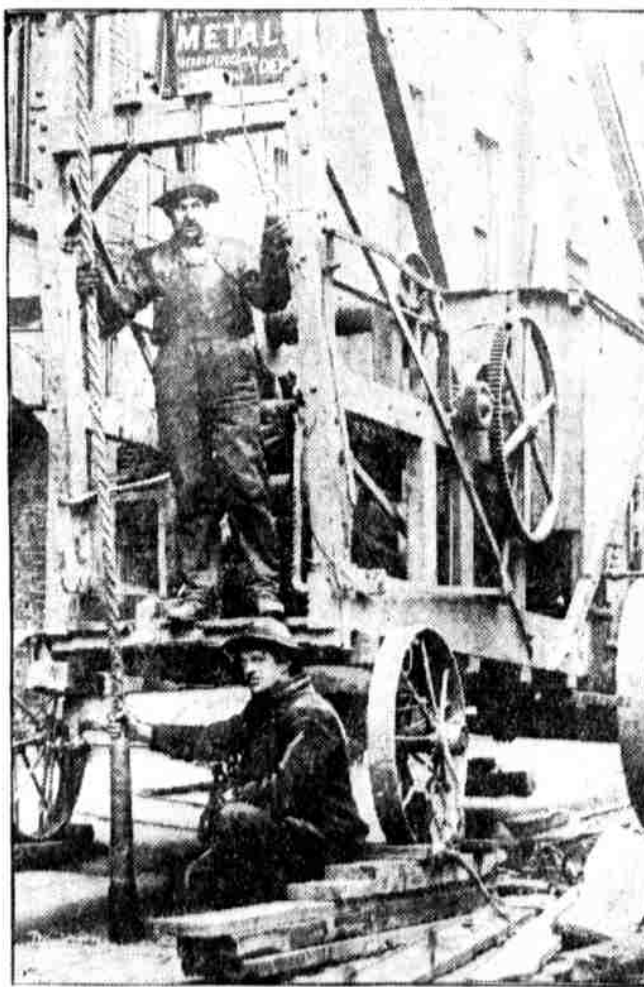

NEW YORK HAS CAT SHOW. Miss Elsie Bailey, of Lynbrook, L. I., and her champion, Dennis, was on hand after winning honors at Denver, Col.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MAKING BELTS. These workmen in the plant of Hinnelein & Bailey, 216 Chestnut street, are putting the finishing touches to a 33-inch belt. The belt is of a three-ply thickness and 130 feet long.

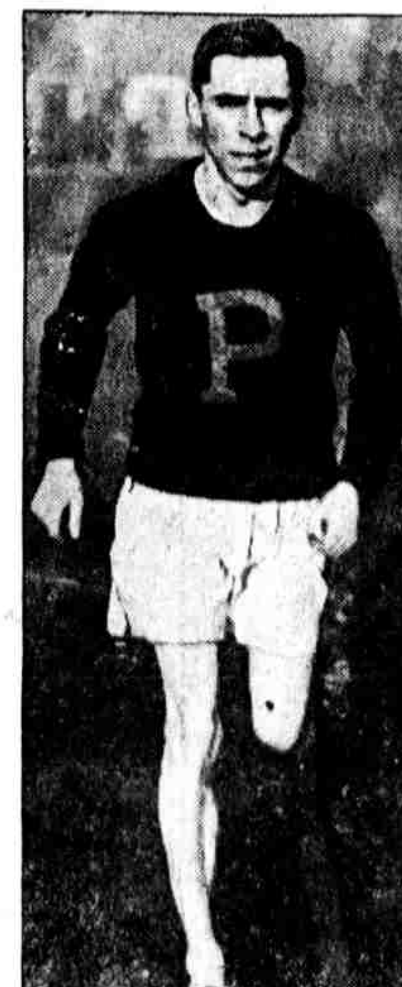

ALL READY FOR THE START. Drilling equipment was set up yesterday afternoon on Water street below Walnut for sounding the ground for the Philadelphia-Camden bridge. No site for the bridge will be selected until a lot of ground tests are made.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

PINCH-HITTER. This is Reserve Patrolman Frank Whitaker, of 136 Pierce street, guarding Twelfth and Chestnut streets while the regular man is off sick. He is married and has been in the police department five years. Whitaker is thirty-four years old.

ONE OF PENN'S BEST. Bob Maxam is sticking to the dirt track on Franklin Field as he keeps in condition for track work.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MILLCENT ESPOSITO, 2804 North Reese street Philadelphia.